1. Who Qualifies as a Franchise Development Consultant Affiliate?

Affiliate Franchise Development Consultant membership of FANZ is available to an organisation:

That does not qualify for any other form of Membership; and

1. Is a legal trading entity; and
2. Certifies that he, she or it is financially sound; and
3. Is prepared to and does, if called upon to do so by the FANZ Scrutineer on behalf of the Board, disclose reasonable details of its systems and/or services in connection with franchising; and
4. Can demonstrate specific knowledge and experience in providing advice and services in their particular professional discipline to the New Zealand franchising sector by providing three testimonials from Franchise Systems the organisation has provided services to; and
5. Where the applicant is a member of a professional body, evidence of membership or a copy of the current practicing certificate; and
6. Can demonstrate commitment to franchising by a representative of the business having attended at least three FANZ functions, or the FANZ Annual Conference, in the preceding twelve months

There will be annual re-accreditation by self-declaration in accordance with Rule 7.3.5. Timely co-operation with the FANZ re-accreditation process is obligatory and fundamental to continued membership. Attendance at FANZ events will be automatically recorded.

Where an organisation cannot fully meet the Criteria for Membership and wishes to participate in the franchising sector to increase the organisation's knowledge of franchising, that organisation may be accepted and may continue as a Provisional Affiliate Member (subject to the time limits, if any, as the Board may impose at its discretion at any time).
